IEEE Interim January 2011
Bangalore, India

M. Vinod Kumar
Abhay Karandikar

Tejas Networks Ltd 2009
Destination – Bangalore, India

India

• Emerging Technology hub
• 2nd Largest Telecom Market in the World
• Emerging destination of Ethernet Deployments

Bangalore – Silicon Valley of the East or Garden city of India

• Juxtaposed with the old palaces and gardens of Bangalore is the hub of Technology Development in India
• Offices of several large organizations such as IBM, Intel, Juniper, Cisco, Huawei, Infosys, Motorola, TI, Broadcom, Wipro, Alcatel-Lucent etc.
Other compelling reasons to be in India

- If you break journey at Delhi
  - Taj Mahal
  - Qutb Minar
  - India Gate
  - Red Fort
  - Jama Masjid

- Around Bangalore
  - Ooty
  - Mysore Palace
  - Munnar
Le Meridien

- January 2011
  - Any week.
- Rent: $200/220.
- Registration: $300
- Incl. BF+Lunch
Opportunity to meet some of the biggest service providers at the networking social

– Tejas to sponsor networking cocktail and dinner
Connectivity to Bangalore

Possible to Reach Bangalore with just one stop!

• Los Angeles, CA (LAX) – BLR: Cathay Pacific, Lufthansa, Malaysian Airlines (With a stop at DEL | Frankfurt | KL | CDG | LHR | HK)
• NYC – BLR: Air India, Jet Airways, American Airlines, Continental (With a stop at DEL | BOM)
• Chicago (CHI) – BLR: Continental, American Airlines, Air India, British Airways (With a stop at DEL | LHR | EWR)
• Atlanta – BLR: Continental (2 Stops)
• Paris, France (CDG) – BLR: Air France (Non Stop)
• London (LHR) – BLR: British Airways (Non Stop)
• Frankfurt – BLR: Lufthansa (Non Stop)
• Many Domestic flights from Mumbai/Delhi
See you in Bangalore!