Perceived Problem   [If more space is needed, please provide an additional file, preferably as plain text.]

The text notes that:
>>For wrapping rings, if the frame is not replicated, the we field is set.
>>For wrapping rings, if the frame is replicated, the we field is not set.
>>For steering rings, the we field has no meaning and is not set.

What about a center-wrapping ring with bidirectional flooding.
Wouldn't that still be replicated with the we==1? I would have thought that was necessary to be protected.
