Minutes of the Study Group (SG) Distingushed Minimum Latency Traffic in a Converged Traffic Environment (DMLT)

January 22, 2013

1. David Law opened the meeting initiating selection of the chair
2. Confirmation of the chair:
    a. Motion to confirm Ludwig proposed by Anatoly and seconded by Oliver
    b. Motion to confirm Ludwig passed unanimously (10, 0. 0)
3. Ludwig started with formal procedures
    c. Signup sheet passed
    d. Introduction of attendees
    e. Agenda and rules:
        i. Agenda has been approved
        ii. Goals of the meeting have been presented
        iii. Reflector and Web links have been provided iv. Overview of IEEE 802.3 Standards process has been presented
        v. Guidelines for the IEEE-SA meetings slide has been shown
4. Presentations:
    - Albert
    - Anatoly
    - Oliver
    - Christian
    - Pat Thaler
    - Geoff
    - Karl
5. Geoff suggested to start a list of features supporting preemption
6. Question from Geoff: Will existing Physical Layer test equipment work with this feature or it needs to be changed?
7. 18 Experts were present.
8. Meeting was adjourned at 5:45 PM

January 23, 2013

1. Meeting started at 9 AM
2. Participants (15 people):

3. Yong Kim presented the PAR straw-man proposal

4. The group decided to work on PAR and 5c objectives as one group

5. After lunch the group continued to work on the PAR

6. Albert volunteered to make a proposal on the scope of the project and publish it on the reflector

7. Group reviewed the 5c slides and identified volunteers to work on specific parts. They are:
    a. Oliver (broad market potential)
    b. Anatoly (compatibility)
    c. Christian (distinct identity)
    d. Geoff (technical feasibility)
    e. Yong (economic feasibility)
8. Future meetings:

    Next meeting will be held during the Orlando plenary.

    Special request for the 802.1/802.3 September interim in York: To hold this meeting Monday and Tuesday, September 2 and 3. Some US experts asked for this to be back before the next weekend.

9. The meeting was adjourned at 4:30 PM