Usage of the github

- Experiences from outside world
  - IETF/IEEE 802.1 use github to share codes and work with experts outside.
  - We could also use the appropriate github repository to advance our work and get more supports from outside.
- How To use the github repository (standard/ieee/802.3/draft):
  - YANG codes & tree hierarchy...but not draft
  - Codes adopted by the group
  - Any copyright issue?
- Drafts would be still placed on Task Force webpage

Draft structure

- Principle of xxx management operation
- Management objects
- YANG Data Model
  - Framework of all models
  - xxx data model
  - yyy data model
- Definition of modules (codes)
