

Security Session

Summary and Next Steps

802.3ah EFM

October 1-2, 2002, New Orleans

Dolors Sala

dolors@broadcom.com

Straw-poll #1

- How many people consider that Link Security is required in P2MP vs. IPSec approach?
- LS: 31 IPSec: 3

Straw-poll #2

- How many people support making available a security mechanism for 802 networks in public environments?
- Y: 31 N: 0 A: 2
- 39 people in the room

Straw-poll #3

- How many people support an effort for developing security within and limited to 802.3ah?
- Y: 17 N:17 A:7

Straw-poll #6

- How many people support an effort for developing security within 802?

• Y: 27

N: 2

A: 6

Straw-poll #7

- How many people would support the formation of a SEC SG to make a recommendation for the security work in 802, the appropriate format and the PAR for this activity?
- Y: 21 N: 0 A: 8
- 29 people in the room!

1	How many people consider that Link Security is required in P2MP vs. IPsec approach?	LS: 31	IPSec: 3
2	How many people support making available a security mechanism for 802 networks in public environments? (39 people in the room)	Y: 31	N: 0	A: 2
3	How many people support an effort for developing security within and limited to 802.3ah?	Y: 17	N: 17	A: 7
4	How many people support an effort for developing security within and limited to EPON?	Y: 17	N: 11	A: 7
5	How many people support an effort for developing security within and limited to 802.3?	Y: 21	N: 6	A: 8
6	How many people support an effort for developing security within 802?	Y: 27	N: 2	A: 6
7	How many people would support the formation of a SEC SG to make a recommendation for the security work in 802, the appropriate format and the PAR for this activity? (29 people in the room)	Y: 21	N: 0	A: 8
8	How many people would support the formation of a 802.3 SG to make a recommendation for the security work in 802.3, the appropriate format and the PAR for this activity?	Y: 11	N: 8	A: 9

Call for Interest on 802 Security

- Prepare Call for interest on “802 security” for Kauai (5 weeks)
- If interested in participating contact:
 - Dolors Sala
 - dolors@broadcom.com
 - Office: 678 475-3220
 - Mobile: 404 353-7349
- Call for interest announcement will be made next week
- Calls to prepare for it will start immediately and will be announced in P2MP EFM reflector