IEEE 802.3
Joint Workshop with ITU-T
16th July 2012, San Diego, CA

Wael William Diab

Vice-Chair, IEEE 802.3 Working Group

wdiab@broadcom.com

Background and Overview

- September 2012 interim is hosted at the ITU-T facilities

- Proposal for a joint workshop between ITU-T and IEEE 802.3
  - Target date is Saturday September 22nd
  - At the ITU-T facilities
  - Will have 3 sessions
    - Access and Core Networking tracks
    - Review/Brainstorming and remarks
  - Detailed logistics covered by 802.3 Exec Sec

Incremental Status Update from March

- 802.3 presentation solicited per process announced in 0312_joint_workshop_open_report
  - ~15 abstracts received. Will be available with the minutes
- Follow-up call and face to face discussion between IEEE leads and ITU-T leads
- Preliminary framework document agreed to
  - Leads assigned for each panel from ITU and for IEEE
  - Will be available with the minutes
  - Panels
    - Track 1 (Access): Overview of the geographic access market, Update on relevant standards activities in ITU-T and IEEE, Activities that build on our various standards
    - Track 2 (Core Networking): Higher speed networking, Energy efficiency

Next Steps

- Panel leads to narrow down the agenda item for their panel
  - Presentations, lengths, presenters, format
  - Expect some offline face to face discussion and this week and offline email discussions to continue
- Publish overall agenda once completed
- Work with IEEE / ITU staff to make it available publically