

Welcome to Edinburgh

September 2019

IEEE 802.1 Meeting
16th – 20th September 2019

Visit Edinburgh and discover a city like no other. Steeped in history, Edinburgh seamlessly blends old and new, providing locals with the perfect destination to experience the sights, sounds and tastes of a diverse and vibrant city

Edinburgh Old Town

More than just a Castle

Explore this unique medieval town with its hidden pends and wynds. Home of many visitor attractions, tours, and a myriad of souvenir shops.

This is where it all started. The Royal Mile - the backbone of the Old Town that leads from Edinburgh Castle down to the Palace of Holyroodhouse and the Scottish Parliament - has seen centuries of Edinburgh life.

An easy walking distance from Edinburgh Waverley Train Station, the area is a must-see for every Edinburgh visitor.

Nestled in between the shops, restaurants, bars and pubs are closes, wynds and pends leading to hidden, tranquil gardens, gorgeous views over the city and pubs and eateries just waiting to be discovered. Filled with remnants and artifacts of the past mixed with the contemporary, this is Old Edinburgh, blending charmingly with the 21st century.

Edinburgh New Town

Edinburgh's New Town and its open grid structure stands in contrast to the organic, winding streets and closes of the Old Town. Together, they comprise the city's UNESCO World Heritage site. The area's wide and elegant streets, lined with stunning neo-classical architecture are one of the world's finest examples of Georgian-era town planning, and a wander through the New Town will help you understand why Edinburgh was nicknamed the Athens of the North.

The New Town is also where you'll find some of Edinburgh's trendiest and most exciting retailers, cocktail bars, restaurants and cafes. Spacious streets and pavements coupled with leafy and green public spaces effortlessly mix of the natural with the cosmopolitan, making for an area with a unique beauty.

The beautiful Princes Street Gardens, a public park running the length of the city's principal shopping street, is overlooked by Edinburgh Castle, and this is where you'll find some of the city's best views of its most iconic landmark. From High Street to high-end, the shopping continues throughout the New Town, accompanied by coffee shops, bars and restaurants aplenty.

Kimpton Charlotte Square Hotel

38 Charlotte Square, Edinburgh. EH2 4HQ

Overlooking one of Edinburgh's prettiest private garden squares, Kimpton Charlotte Square Hotel consists of seven interconnected Georgian townhouses. Outside is where you'll find the New Town, a UNESCO World Heritage Site that's delightfully removed from the city's tourist hubs. But it's inside where things really get interesting. The newly renovated interior blends handsome woods, plush fabrics, and rich pops of color—and, yes, just a touch of tartan—to luxurious effect. And with a magnetic inner courtyard and an acclaimed Middle Eastern restaurant, it's no wonder the hotel has become a natural meeting point and a sociable heart of modern life.

Travel by Rail

The nearest train station is Edinburgh Waverley Station and is only half a mile, or a 15-minute walk, from the hotel. It has direct service to the London King's Cross railway station. Getting a taxi from the station takes approximately 5 minutes, and the fare is between £6 and £8.

Travel by Air

Edinburgh International Airport is just 7 miles, or 25 minutes via taxi, from The Kimpton Charlotte Square Hotel. A typical fare is under £25 (this may be higher on public holidays).

There is regular tram service for £6 for a single trip, or £8.50 return, which takes about 40 minutes and stops at Princes Street West End.
