Heidelberg Sightseeing Recommendations

◆ Heidelberg Castle

One of the best examples of German Renaissance architecture. It can be reached by the Bergbahn, a funicular railway running from the Kornmarkt, or via a 15-minute walk from the Old Town.

◆ Hauptstrasse (Main Street) and the Altstadt (Old Town)

Highlights include the early 15th-century Heiliggeistkirche, the Church of the Holy Spirit, and Haus zum Ritter, a Renaissance building dating from 1592. Halfway along the Hauptstrasse,, is the excellent Palatinate Museum. Founded in the late 1870s, the museum is home to a collection that includes a cast of the lower jaw of the 500,000-year-old Heidelberg Man, discovered near here in 1908.

◆ Old University

On the south side of the Hauptstrasse lies Universitätsplatz, with the Old University dating back to 1711. On its east side, in Augustinergasse, is the Pedellenhaus with the former Student Prison, Karzer,. Here, students found guilty of misdeeds (such as dueling or disturbing the peace by singing at night) were incarcerated for 24 hours. While there, they decorated the walls with graffiti that remains today.

◆ Alte Brücke – Old Bridge

Spanning the Neckar and joining the two sides of historic Heidelberg, the famous bridge with its lovely sculptures is well worth strolling along for its views of Heidelberg and beautiful twin towers.
