

July Plenary and Next Steps

Kent Lusted, Synopsys
Mark Nowell, Cisco

10 June 2026

Introduction

- Project documentation approvals are the key to the transition to Task Force
- Task Force makes technical decisions, including selecting baseline proposals
- Adoption of documentation in July achieves Task Force in late September 2026
- Respond quickly to industry
- Recognize participant overlap, minimize 400GPL time conflicts until 3dj workload decreases

Note: Additional E4AI efforts are anticipated to start in 2027

Timeline to Get to Task Force

Legend:

- Interim
- Plenary

- This is the path to avoid schedule complications

Key Date	Notes
13 June 2026	LMSC Pre-submission deadline (30 days)
13 July 2026	LMSC Opening Meeting at July Plenary
14 August 2026	NesCom submission deadline
14-17 September 2026	IEEE 802.3 September 2026 Interim meeting
25 September 2026	NesCOM & SASB Meeting

Next Steps

- 30 June Ad hoc
 - Requests for presentation are due Wednesday, 24 June 2026, 12noon (Pacific)
- July 2026 Plenary meeting (Wednesday, AM1/AM2)
 - #1: Respond to comments against draft PAR, draft CSD, draft objectives
 - #2: Technical presentations related to project documentation
 - Priority to be given to P802.3dj for D3.1 comment resolution since that work is laying the foundation for 400GPL
- July/August electronic teleconference meetings
 - Tentatively scheduled for 30 July, 6 August, and 20 August
 - Enable detailed analysis/debate/discussion, and broader community input on technical proposals
- September interim
 - Requested 3.5 days for 400GPL at the September interim for more technical presentations and extended discussions

Summary

Goal: First Task Force meeting after September 2026

To achieve this, at the July Meeting we must accomplish:

- Approval of PAR
- Approval of CSD
- Approval of a sufficient set of objectives to demonstrate the project's viability

Thank You!
