

IEEE 802.3 New Ethernet Applications (NEA) Ad Hoc Closing Report

John D'Ambrosia
Futurewei, Subsidiary of Huawei
Bangkok, Thailand
Nov 2018

IEEE 802.3 NEA Ad hoc

- Ad Hoc Organization

- John D'Ambrosia, IEEE 802.3 NEA Ad Hoc Chair
- Jon Lewis, IEEE 802.3 NEA Ad Hoc Vice-Chair
- Xinyuan Wang, BWA2 Asia Pacific Champion

- Ad Hoc Web and Reflector Information

- Home Page - http://www.ieee802.org/3/ad_hoc/ngrates/index.html
- Reflector Information – http://www.ieee802.org/3/ad_hoc/ngrates/reflector.html
- Approved ICAID – http://standards.ieee.org/about/sasb/iccom/IC15-005-02_New_Ethernet_Applications.pdf

- BWA2 Web and Reflector Information

- Home Page - http://www.ieee802.org/3/ad_hoc/bwa2/index.html
- Reflector Information – http://www.ieee802.org/3/ad_hoc/ngrates/reflector.html

Activities This Week

- Session #1 – Tuesday 11/13, 7:30pm to 10pm
 - Switching Latency (Jordon Woods)
 - Moving effort back into 802.1
 - Automotive Optical Multigig (Carlos Pardo)
 - Targeting CFI – July 2019
 - Ethernet Bandwidth Assessment
 - Broadband Development Status and Trend in China - Wenyu Zhao, CAICT
- Session #2 - Wednesday 11/14, 9am to 11am
 - No comments received - cancelled

ICAID – New Ethernet Applications

- No comments received
- 802.3WG Approved ICAID in September 2018
- Next Steps
 - EC Approval (Pending EC Meeting, 11/16)
 - ICCOM Meeting, Dec 3
 - IEEE-SA Standards Board Approval (Dec Standards Board, 12/5)

NEA Announcement

- 25 GBASE-T over min. 50m
 - Teleconference to be scheduled

Questions?

Thank you!